

Manufacturing Applications

Apac Inti Corpora

With over 15 years of experience in textile industry, PT APAC INTI CORPORA (APACINTI) has transform into a giant textile and textile product manufacturer with the biggest weaving and spinning factory in the world in single location.

APACINTI's factory is situated on a strategic and advantageous place in Central Java-Indonesia. It is an ideal location call Bawen at Semarang city that can assemble intensive labours for 11.000 local people.

Powered by computerized system, sophisticated and integrated machinery, APACINTI widely produces 3 key products of yarn, greige fabric, and denim.

They are concerning to their waste treatment consistently following the principles of Cleaner Production. Their waste water treatment operate 24 hours a day, it processes the entire liquid waste which released by the production process. Solid Waste Dryer and Incinerator are used to process our solid waste. Entirety of the process and safe water resulted by waste water treatment discharged to public waterway, are continuously monitored. This is to ensure that the whole process take place accordingly. The main parameters tested are: pH, TSS, TDS, COD, BOD5, Ammonia, Phenol, Oil and heavy metal essence.

Scope of supply and technical data

Valves
Ecoline GL 150 ND 200
2 BOAX B T2

